 During a celebration of the Army's 234th birthday, Soldiers of the 1st Air Cav. Bde., 1st Cav. Div., MND-B, mingle during a smoker and discuss unit operations June 14 at Camp Taji, Iraq. The celebration included guest speaker Command Sgt. Maj. Rory Malloy, 1st Cav. Div, a rooftop dinner and an assortment of cigars.

'Diamond Club' meets to celebrate Army birthday

BY SPC. ALUN THOMAS

1st Air Cavalry Brigade, 1st Cavalry Division Public Affairs

The scent of cigar smoke wafted through the night air, accompanied by the sounds of frenzied chatter and laughter.

It was a select group that had gathered, bound by rank to celebrate the Army's birthday. For the moment they were free of the constraints of being in a combat zone, far away from home.

The Soldiers were members of the "Diamond Club," first sergeants of the 1st Air Cavalry Brigade, who converged for a "smoker," June 14, on the newly-renovated Aviation Logistics Operations Center rooftop, where they smoked cigars and celebrated the Army's 234th birthday at Camp Taji, north of Baghdad.

The smoker was attended by first sergeants from every company within the 1st ACB, said 1st Sgt. Joseph Wilgeroth, from Bath, Pa., 1st ACB, 1st Cavalry Division, Multi-National Division-Baghdad. He said the club had been formed at Fort Hood.
