Gold Star mother Deborah Tainsh will sign her book, "Surviving the Folded Flag: Parents of War Share Stories of Coping, Courage and Faith," at 1 p.m. July 25 at the Clear Creek PX.

The book, Tainsh's second, is the compilation of 25 stories of fallen Soldiers, Marines and sailors to celebrate their lives and to share the courage and faith of the parents they left behind.

JULY 30

Warrant 'Round Up'

The Fort Hood Directorate of Emergency Services' Civil Police Liaison Branch, in conjunction with the cities of Killeen, Copperas Cove and Lampasas, will conduct a Warrant "Round Up" July 30 in Building 23023.

The Warrant Round Up is a local law enforcement cooperation program that allows Soldiers and family members from the Fort Hood community the opportunity to resolve outstanding local warrants on the installation.

The DES will notify a Soldier's chain of command before the Warrant Round Up that their Soldier has an outstanding warrant.

The Soldier or family member will be able to voluntarily resolve the issue on the installation with the respective local law enforcement agencies.

Questions concerning Fort Hood warrants can be directed to Connie Trumble at 287-2710. Questions concerning City of Killeen warrants can be directed to the Killeen Police Department at 285-4711 or the City of Killeen marshal at 285-9042.
